Advices from Berlin state that the Kaiser, appreciating the extreme seriousness of affairs in the far East, and recognizing the fact that Russia will have her resources taxed to the utmost for some time to come, has assured the Czar of his resolve to prevent by all possible means an outbreak in the Balkans. Every pressure will be brought to bear on Turkey to this end. It is regarded as certain, say the advices, that the Sultan will listen to the Kaiser more readily than to any other ruler of Europe.

Miss M. Cartledge gives some helpful advice to young girls. Her letter is but one of thousands which prove that nothing is so helpful to young girls who are just arriving at the period of womanhood as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound too highly, for it is the only medicine I ever tried which cured me. I suffered most from my first menstrual period, I felt so weak and dizzy at times I could not pursue my studies with the usual interest. My thoughts became sluggish, I had headaches, backaches and sinking spells, also pains in the back and lower limbs. In fact, I was sick all over.

"Finally, after many other remedies had been tried, we were advised to get Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am pleased to say that after taking it only two weeks, a wonderful change for the better took place, and in a short time I was in perfect health. I felt buoyant, full of life, and found all work a pastime. I am indeed glad to tell my experience with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, for it made a different girl of me. Yours very truly, Miss M. CARTLEDGE, 533 Whitehall St., Atlanta, Ga."—$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

"THE BLADE" IS OFF!

"The Ledger" Begs to Correct Some of Its "History."

The Ripley Bee wants to know in what year the steamboat Moselle was blown up at Cincinnati and number of persons killed? Also in what year was the A. N. Johnston blown up just below Manchester and how many killed? How many were killed by the explosion of the Sultana in 1855, and wants to hear from Captain Evans on the subject. We don't know what Captain Evans may know about these matters, but we can say that the Moselle blew up in 1840 and two hundred people were killed. The A. N. Johnston blew up in 1854 and seventy persons were lost. It was never known how many people were lost on the Sultana, but it was not far from a thousand. She was crowded with Union soldiers, coming North to be mustered out.—Portsmouth Blade.

For the sake of history, and for the information of The Blade writer, THE LEDGER begs to correct the foregoing.

The steamer Moselle was blown up at Cincinnati, just as she was pushing out for a trial trip, April 25th, 1838, and a few over 100 lives were lost.

The new steamer A. N. Johnston blew up ten miles above this city at 1:30 a. m. Dec. 30th, 1854, and only 45 persons were lost, a number of the injured being brought to this city, several dying here.

The ill-fated Sultana exploded her boilers 9 miles above Memphis, Tenn., about 1 o'clock in the morning of April 27th, 1855. She had on board 1,866 Federal soldiers who had been prisoners-of-war, and who were on their way home from Vicksburg after being exchanged. Of this number, 1,101 were lost, only 765 being saved. The passengers and crew numbered 155, of whom 137 were lost, making a total loss of 1,238.

Of the surviving soldiers are Messrs. George M. Clinger now of Dover and William Carver of this city; and among the lost were several Maysville boys.

GEORGE VARIAN SIMPSON.

A Sweet Young Child Called to the Fold Above.

Death has ever been an unwelcome messenger, come when it may, to take home to God from our embrace the immortal spirit of a darling child, the object of parental devotion; we shrink back in sadness as we behold our fondest hopes cruelly blighted. God is hourly calling some dear ones to Himself; yet we must be comforted to know that the dear little form is transplanted from a world of sin and suffering to a world of purity and love. God needs the little roadways to beautify His heavenly garden, and so takes them one by one to the realm of glory.

As a pang to the hearts of loved ones comes the sad news of the death of little George Varian Simpson, the darling eight-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Simpson of Maysville, Ky. Only two weeks ago the parents returned to their home with the little one, and after a brief but painful illness, notwithstanding all the attention that love and earthly skill could administer, his little soul was wafted to join the heavenly choir on Sunday afternoon, February 14th, there to sparkle a bright gem in the crown of our blessed Redeemer.

To the afflicted parents the heartfelt sympathy of the community is extended, who commend them to "Him who gave and has taken away."

Shut the door softly, for George's asleep, And list to the music of heavenly feet As they climb the stairway up to the sky, And turn with a smile to say goodby.

"Fare ye well, and loved ones so dear, Call me not back from the echoless shore." Be faithful! is wafted across death's dark deep, List! the golden key turned and George's asleep.

An Early Riser.

A strong, healthy, active constitution depends largely on the condition of the liver. The famous little pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Risers not only cleanse the system but they strengthen the action of the liver and rebuild the tissues supporting that organ. Little Early Risers are easy to act, they never gripe and yet they are absolutely certain to produce results that are satisfactory in all cases. Sold by J. J. Wood & Son, Druggists.

Rheumatism
Cured.

Mr. Michael Doran, Youngstown, Ohio, says:

"I suffered for a long time with acute Rheumatism in my knee. I tried all kinds of remedies, including an expensive course of electric treatment, all in vain. At the suggestion of my druggist I took a bottle of Paracamp to try. The effect of its use was magical. I got relief at once and after using three or four bottles believe I am permanently cured. It is a wonderful remedy, and upon my advice a number of my friends have tried Paracamp, and the verdict is unanimous that it is all it is claimed to be. I come of my own accord with this statement because Paracamp is a blessing."

Sincerely,
"MICHAEL DORAN."
